HONORING
KENNY WILSON, EVP & CWO
FROST BANK

KENNY WILSON

Kenny Wilson is Frost Bank's Group Executive Vice President and Chief Wealth Officer. In that position, he oversees the bank's trust, investment, and brokerage businesses. Prior to joining Frost in August 2023, he was Chief Executive Officer of Haven for Hope in San Antonio, with the responsibility of leading the organization's workforce, managing 185 nonprofit organizational partnerships, and administering a $21 million annual budget. Prior to Haven for Hope, Wilson served as market president for Bank of America in San Antonio and Austin. He also served U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management, as managing director and market executive, overseeing the investment management, credit, trust, and banking services for wealthy individuals and families in San Antonio, Austin, and Midland. He was responsible for the administration of charitable foundations including the establishment and administration of the Kronkosky Charitable Foundation.

Kenny has served as Chairman of the Board of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Executive Committee of the Austin Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation, and Chairman of the University of Texas at San Antonio Development Board. He has served as chairman of the Board of the San Antonio Symphony, the Free Trade Alliance and the Masters Leadership Program. Kenny has served on the boards of the San Antonio Museum of Art, the P16+ Education Council, and the Executive Committee of The United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County. He has been awarded a lifetime membership to the board at Christus Santa Rosa Children's Hospital Foundation.

Wilson earned a bachelor's degree from Abilene Christian University and completed post-graduate work in finance and accounting. He and his wife, Sharon, have three daughters and seven grandchildren.
